

Ph.D. Course Work

Paper-I
(Compulsory Paper)

Paper Code : PCW01

Full Marks : 100

Time : 3 Hours

Credit : 04

Unit – I: Introduction to Research:

Science and the scientific approach-Science and Common Sense, Methods of Knowing Science and its functions, The aim of Science, Scientific explanation and theory, Scientific research- Definition and scientific approach.

Unit – II: Problems, Hypotheses and review of literature:

Problem-Definition and its identification, importance of problem. Hypothesis-Definition and its value, Test of Hypothesis. Test of Statistics-Relation between problem and hypothesis. Research designing-Meanings, Characteristics. Purpose and Types. Review and Literature-Concerning research topic/subject. Research Ethics. Plagiarism.

Unit – III: Methodology:

Techniques of data collection-Survey, Observation, Questionnaire and Schedule, Interview, Case Study and Experimental Study. Rating scale.

Unit – IV: Parametric Statistics and Non- Parametric Statistics:

Basic approach, determination and purpose of statistics, Concept of the patterns of distribution, Sampling methods and techniques. Variable and types of variables, measurement of variables.

Unit –V: Computer and its application in research:

Basic concepts of Computer-Hardware and Software, Microsoft office-M.S. Word, Excel, Power Point. Statistical Package for Social Sciences (SPSS). Various uses of Computer and its application in the field of research.

.....